The Financial Aid Scholarship Committee functions under the coordination of the Financial Aid Office, which oversees the administration of financial aid. The Financial Aid Scholarship Committee recommends and/or establishes policies and written procedures for the criteria, selection, and awarding process for ATC scholarships. The Committee selects scholarship recipients in accordance with the appropriate scholarship criteria and procedures.

Members of the Financial Aid Scholarship Committee include the following faculty and staff representatives:

- ATC Financial Aid Director
- ATC Foundation Director
- One faculty member from the General Education Division
- One faculty member from the Health Sciences Division
- One faculty member from the Technical Education Division
- One staff member from the Administrative Services Division
- One staff member from the Advising Department
- One staff member from the Recruitment and Student Experience Department

Committee meetings will be called as needed.
